An Act to explain and amend an Act, passed in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Year of His present Majesty, concerning the Disposition of certain Real and Personal Property of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and also of the Real and Personal Property of His Majesty, an Act of the Queen Consort for the Time being. [All dated 1803.]

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled, An Act concerning the Disposition of certain Real and Personal Property of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and also of the Real and Personal Property of His Majesty, and of the Queen Consort for the Time being, it was among other Things enacted, that divers Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and likewise a Right of the Crown, which, in the Hands of any of His Majesty's Subjects, would be chargeable with certain Trusts, or applicable to certain Purposes, and His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, might be distressed that the same should be applied accordingly, notwithstanding any Right which He or they might have to hold the same discharged from such Trusts, or without applying the same to such Purposes; but that, by reason of the Provisions contained in the Act of the Fifth Year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, and the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, Doubts might be raised whether His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, could direct such Applications thereof; and that divers Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, as well Freehold as Copyhold, had likewise and might likewise to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, for Want of Heirs of the Persons last aforesaid be vested therein, or by reason of force of Forfeiture or otherwise, although not intended for Trusts or Purposes; and that it was expedient to enable His Majesty to direct the Execution of any such Trusts or Purposes as aforesaid, and to make any Grants of any such Mansors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as aforesaid, notwithstanding the Provisions contained in the said recited Acts; and it was therefore, in and by the said last recited Act, enacted, That it should be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under his or their Sign Manual, to direct the Execution of any Trusts or Purposes to which any Mansors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which had either been or should either be to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, should have been liable at the Time the same so either directed respectively, or would have been liable in the Hands of any of His Majesty's Subjects; and to make any Grants of such Mansors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments respectively, to any Trustee or Trustees or otherwise, for the Execution of such Trusts, and to make any Grants of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which had either been or should either be aforesaid to any Person or Persons, either for the Purpose of restoring the same to any of the Family of the Person or Persons whose Estates the same had been, or of rewarding any Person or Persons making Discovery of any such Estate, as to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors respectively, should seem fit; And Whereas Doubts have arisen whether the Powers given by the said last recited Act extended to Mansors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which have or may come to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Right of His Duchy of Lancaster, or by reason that the same had been purchased by or for the Use of, or in trust for any Abbot or Abbess, and whether the same extend to enable His Majesty to grant any Rents or Arrents of Rent accrued or to become due in respect of any Mansors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, before any Grant thereof under the said Act: And it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases in which His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, both or shall, in Right of His Crown or of His Duchy of Lancaster, become entitled to any Freehold or Copyhold Mansors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, either by Estate for want of Heirs, or by reason of any Forfeiture, or by reason that the same had been purchased by or for the Use of or in trust for any Abbot or Abbess, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under His or their Sign Manual, or under the Seal of the Duchy or County Palatine of Lancaster, according to the Nature of the Title to such Mansors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments respectively, to direct the Execution of any Trusts or Purposes to which the same may have been directed to be applied, and to make Grants of such Mansors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of any Rents or Arrents then due and in Arrear to His Majesty in respect thereof respectively, to any Trustee or Trustees, or otherwise, for the Execution of any such Trusts or Purposes, or to any Person or Persons for the Purpose of restoring the same to any of the Family of the Person or Persons whose Estates the same had been, or of carrying into Effect any intended Grant, Conveyance, or Devise of any such Person or Persons in relation thereto, or of rewarding any Person or Persons making Discovery of any such Estate, or of His Majesty's Right and Title therein, as to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors respectively, shall seem fit; any Thing in the said recited Acts, or any other Act heretofore made, to the contrary notwithstanding.

C. 11

His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors may direct the Execution of any Trusts to which Lands which in trust by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or by reason of the Duchy of Lancaster, or by reason that the same had been purchased by or for the Use of or in trust for any Abbot or Abbess, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under His or their Sign Manual, or under the Seal of the Duchy or County Palatine of Lancaster, according to the Nature of the Title to such Mansors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments respectively, to direct the Execution of any Trusts or Purposes to which the same may have been directed to be applied, and to make Grants of such Mansors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of any Rents or Arrents then due and in Arrear to His Majesty in respect thereof respectively, to any Trustee or Trustees, or otherwise, for the Execution of any such Trusts or Purposes, or to any Person or Persons for the Purpose of restoring the same to any of the Family of the Person or Persons whose Estates the same had been, or of carrying into Effect any intended Grant, Conveyance, or Devise of any such Person or Persons in relation thereto, or of rewarding any Person or Persons making Discovery of any such Estate, or of His Majesty's Right and Title therein, as to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors respectively, shall seem fit; any Thing in the said recited Acts, or any other Act heretofore made, to the contrary notwithstanding.

AN Act for more effectually charging Public Accountants with Interest upon Balances; and for other Purposes relating to the paying of Public Accounts. [8th April 1807.]

WHEREAS an Act was made and passed in the Thirty-sixth and Fortieth Year of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for more effectually charging Public Accountants with the Payment of Interest; and for allowing Interest in some certain Cases, and for compelling the Payment of Balances due from them; by which Act certain Provisions were made for charging Public Accountants, who have been concerned in the Receipt of the Revenue, with Interest upon Balances appearing to have remained in their Hands at the Discretion of their Service, and also for charging other Public Accountants with Interest upon Balances remaining in their Hands at the Time of the making of their Accounts; And whereas it is just and equitable that Persons who have innocently and successfully remained in their Hands large Balances of Public Money should in certain Cases be charged with Interest upon such Balances; but no Power is given by the said Act to charge such Persons with Interest, except in the Cases which are particularly specified in the said Act: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in the present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases in which it shall appear, upon the Examination or Audit of Public Accounts, that Balances of Public Money have innocently and successfully remained in the Hands of the Accountant, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, and all other Officers who shall be charged with the Duty of examining and finally paying such Accounts, and they are hereby authorized, in all Cases in which it shall appear to them to be just and equitable, to charge such Accountants with Interest upon the Whole or any Part of the said Balances, for such Period of Time just, and not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, as they shall deem reasonable, although it shall appear that such Accountants were not indebted at the Time or in the Manner mentioned and specified in the said Act: And that the said Officers and Persons named in the Title or in the Matter mentioned and specified in the said Act shall be liable to the same Penalties and Forfeitures as are therein contained in the said Act: And that the said Act shall extend to the contrary aforesaid Provisions.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Charges of Interest, which shall be made by virtue of the present Act, shall have the same force and effect as if the same had been made under the Authority of the several Acts of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and shall be subject to the same Appointments and Control of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury; and the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, and all other proper Officers, shall observe the same Course of Proceeding, with respect to all Charges of Interest to be made under the Authority of the present Act, as if such Charge had been made under the Authority of the said Acts of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Year of His present Majesty, except so far as such Course of Proceeding is in any Manner affected or varied by the present Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That any Account which shall be directed to be delivered into the Office for auditing the Public Accounts, may be settled before any One of the Commissioners for auditing the said Accounts.

[14th August 1807.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the further Support and Maintenance of Curacies within the Circuit of England, and for making certain Regulations respecting the Appointment of such Curacies, and the Dissolution of Parishes in Curacies augmented by Queen Anne's Bounty, with respect to the Avoidance of other Benefices; after reciting that, by an Act passed in the First Year of His late most gracious Majesty King George the First, it was enacted that all Churches, Churches, and Chapels which should be augmented by the Giftors of the late Queen Anne's Bounty, should be from thenceforth Perpetual Curacies and Benefices; and that it was enacted that such augmented Churches, Churches, and Chapels, should be subjected to the same Rules as Benefices with respect to the Avoidance of other Benefices; it was enacted that such augmented Churches, Churches, and Chapels, should be considered in Law as Benefices; and that the Letters Testate should operate in the same Manner as Testations to such Benefices, and should render voidable other Letters in like Manner in Indultion to the said Benefices; and also after reciting that Dissolves had been entertained whether the Acceptance of such augmented Churches, Churches, and Chapels had rendered voidable in Law such other Benefices as the Incumbents possessed before their Acceptance of the same, and that it was fit that every Incumbent who had accepted such Churches, Churches, and Chapels, should be quieted in the Possession of the Benefices they enjoyed before the Acceptance of the same, it was further enacted and declared, that all such Benefices as were held in Conjunction with augmented Curacies before the passing of the said Act, should continue to be held by the then Incumbents thereof, with, and that it should not be lawful to prefer to the said Benefices until they should become void or voidable by Death or Cessure, or by other lawful Cause of Avoidance arising after the passing of the said Act: And Whereas many Clergymen have innocently and unwarily done the said Act, and after they were Incumbents of other Benefices, accepted Churches, Churches, and Chapels, which were augmented as aforesaid, without any Knowledge that they would by Reason thereof cease in Avoidance or Right of Indultion to their former Benefices: And Whereas it may be expedient that some Regulation should hereafter be made respecting the Acceptance of such augmented Churches, Churches, and Chapels, and that for a Time to be limited in that Behalf, no Right of Deprecation or of Indultion shall be exercised in respect of the Acceptance of any such augmented Church, Curacy, or Chapel: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Persons who, upon or at any Time after the First Day of the present Session of Parliament, were or have been the lawful Incumbents of any Benefices, shall notwithstanding they have or had accepted any such augmented Curacy, but without Prejudice to the Avoidance or Right of Indultion, arise from any other Cause, remain and be the Incumbents of such Benefices until the Fourth Day of the next Session of Parliament, or until the Death or Cessure of such Incumbent respectively, or other lawful Cause of Avoidance of such Benefices respectively, other than the Acceptance of such augmented Curacies which have been made or taken place, or shall be made or take place in the intermediate Time, to be computed from the said First Day of the present Session of Parliament: provided that the Time during which any Suspension shall take place of the Effect of any Deprecation or Indultion made, or to be made as aforesaid, shall not be reckoned as Part of the Time during which there hath been a Vacancy, in any Question of Law.

XIV. And whereas, by a Clause in an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, entitled, An Act for granting to her Majesty Duties upon Malt, Ale, Cyder, and Perry, for the * Service of the Year One Shilling from hundred and thirteen, and for making forth Duplicates of Lottery Tickets by, bond, or otherwise, and for enlarging the Time for adjusting Claims in several Lottery Acts, and in pursuance thereof for making of any Office Order; and for enlarging a late Act in relation to Stamp Duties on real estate; It is enacted that if any Maltster or Maker of Malt for Sale, during the Continuance of the Duties on Malt by the said Act granted, should tread, run, or otherwise force together in the Cilers, Using Fat, or Couch, any Corn Steeping or Steeped, in order to the making into Malt, every Tish Maltster or Maker of Malt for Sale should for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence for every Bushel of Corn Steeping or Steeped, that should be found to be trodden, runned, or forced; And whereas by one other Clause in an Act, made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled, All that for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the publick Breweries of Ale, Beer, and Wine, and of Spirits, and of the Sale thereof, it was enacted and declared, that if, from and after the Fourth and Twentieth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and twenty, any Corn or any Maltster or Using Fat, Steeping or Steeped in order to the making thereof into Malt by any Maltster or Maker of Malt (other than Compositors for the Duty on Malt) was or should be found, in hand, clove, and compass, as it could not be used the same had by some Means or other been forced together to prevent the Rising and swelling thereof, in or out of the Cilers, using Fat, or Couch, every Maltster or Maker of Malt (other than Compositors for the Duty on Malt) who the same shall be found, shall in every such Case forfeit and lose the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence for every Bushel of such Corn Steeping or Steeped, which should be found so trodden, clove, and compass as aforesaid; and every such Clause have been daily construed to, and are still in force: And whereas by the last recited Clause no Penalty is provided where Corn Steeped in order to the making thereof into Malt, should be found as in the Couch to be hand, clove, and compass, as it could not be used the same had by some means or other been forced together to prevent the Rising and swelling thereof; and the Penalties provided by the said recited Clause have, by Experience, been found insufficient to prevent the fraudulent Practice of passing, trodding, running, or otherwise forcing together in the Cilers, Using Fat, or Couch, the Corn or Grain to be steeped or trodden, in order to the making thereof into Malt, to the Prejudice of His Majesty's Revenue and Discommodities of most of the fair Traders: Be it therefore enacted, and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Twenty-third Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eight, if any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall tread, run, or otherwise force together in the Cilers, Using Fat, or Couch, any Corn or Grain, Steeping or Steeped, in order to the making thereof into Malt, every Tish Maltster or Maker of Malt shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Five Shillings for every Bushel of Corn or Grain, Steeping or Steeped, that shall be so trodden, runned, or forced together; or if any Corn or Grain in any Cilers, Using Fat, or Couch, Steeping or Steeped, in order to the making thereof into Malt, by any Maltster or Maker of Malt, it shall be found to be hand, clove, and compass, as it could not be used the same had by some Means or other been forced together, to prevent the Rising or Swelling thereof, every Maltster or Maker of Malt, whose the same shall be so found, shall in every such Case forfeit and lose the Sum of Five Shillings for every Bushel of such Corn or Grain, Steeping or Steeped, which shall be found so hand, clove, and compass; and Proof being made to the proof, the same shall be deemed conclusive Evidence of the Fact, and shall subject the Maltster or maker of Malt to the aforesaid Penalty of Five Shillings per Bushel.

XV. * *And whereas many Maltsters or Makers of Malt do fraudulently convey away from the Cilers, Using Fat, or other wetting Place or Utensil, Steepings or Part of Steepings of Corn or Grain making into Malt, and mix such Corn or Grain so conveyed away with and amongst Coarser or Finer of other Corn or Grain making into Malt, which are then depending and then in Operation, that have been gauged or charged with the Duty in the Couch, and so sell the Offence; his Majesty's Revenue is thereby diminished; and whereas by one other Clause in an Act, made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled, All that for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the publick Breweries of Ale, Beer, and Wine, and of Spirits, and of the Sale thereof, it was enacted and declared, that if, from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eight, if any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall fraudulently convey away, or cause or procure, or permit or suffer to be conveyed away from the Cilers, Using Fat, or other wetting Place or Utensil, any Steeping or Part of any Steeping of Corn or Grain making into Malt, and shall mix such Corn or Grain so conveyed away with and amongst any such Coarser or Finer, Floor or Flour, of other Corn or Grain making into Malt, which are then depending and then in Operation, and which have been gauged or charged with the Duty in the Couch; or if any Maltster or Maker of Malt shall fraudulently convey away, or cause or procure, or permit or suffer to be conveyed away from the Cilers, Using Fat, or other wetting Place or Utensil, any Steeping or Part of any Steeping of Corn or Grain making into Malt, so that so Gauge of such Corn or Grain so conveyed away can be taken in the Couch by the Officer; then and in each of the said Cases every such Maltster or Maker of Malt is offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.*

XVI.
